Responsible Jewellery Council

Italpreziosi was founded in 1984 and is a main operators in the production, refining and trading of precious metals, production and trade of investment gold and the headquarters and refining plants are located in San Zeno in Arezzo, Italy. The plants have an annual refining capacity of over 350 tonnes of silver and gold. Thanks to the latest generation technologies and plants with an impact close to 0, in addition to having a central position in the value chain, Italpreziosi represents the strategic partner for all operators in the precious metal business, offering complete solutions for mines, banks, jewelry manufacturers, and industrial and private consumers. Our commitment is to guarantee the highest quality standards in compliance with ethics and sustainability principles.

Italpreziosi owns accreditations and certifications, relating to the gold supply chain, obtained from the main national and international authorities; they concern the quality of product, process, safety, with constant attention to human rights and environmental protection. For Italpreziosi "responsible sourcing" means to guarantee traceability and transparency, fundamental elements for our business. Strict internal due diligence procedures ensure constant control of the precious metals supply chain up to the origin.

Italpreziosi has been a member of the Responsible Jewellery Council since 2012. The RJC is a standards organisation established to improve responsible environmental, social, ethical and human rights practices throughout the jewellery supply chain for gold, silver, platinum, diamonds and coloured gemstones. As a Member of the RJC, we commit to conduct our business activities in accordance with the RJC Code of practices and undertake to provide evidence through independent external verification. We are also committed to integrating ethical, social, environmental and human rights considerations into our daily operations, business planning and decision-making processes.

Italpreziosi is committed to reporting all activities transparently, for example by publishing annual Compliance Reports and the Sustainability Report.
